DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

FOR FAMILY, FRIENDS & GROUPS

---

1. Why must a leader exercise humility when dealing with grumblers?
2. How did God initially respond to the Israelites' grumbling? What can we learn from God's example?
3. Describe a recent occasion when you had to deal with a grumbler. What was the real problem that needed to be addressed in that situation?
4. Why do we often take others' grumbling so personally? How might we instead subtly redirect their attention to God?
5. What are some common responses to others' grumbling--and why is allowing them to experience consequences a better strategy? What are some of the natural consequences of grumbling?
6. What happens when we "lose it" with grumblers? What are some ways to prevent ourselves from losing it?
7. What grumbler (no specific names please) should you pray for? What might you pray?
