DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

FOR FAMILY, FRIENDS & GROUPS

1. Fill in the blank: The best news I've heard this week is...
2. How do you decide if something is true or not?
3. Why is it so important to have a trusted source of information and guidance?
4. What is something new you learned about the process of how we got the Bible?
5. How do you handle it when you come across something in the Bible that seems like a contradiction or inaccurate?
6. How does the trustworthiness of the Bible impact how you relate to what it says about what you should believe and do?
7. If you are skeptical about the Bible, what are you doing to seek answers to your questions? Are you willing to give the Bible a try even before you are convinced it is trustworthy?
8. What is your plan for being in the Bible every day this week? Be specific. When and where will you read it? What plan will you use to guide your reading?
